

ENDELIENTA OPEN EXHIBITION 2019 INFORMATION PACK AND ENTRY FORM

Endelienta is pleased to invite artists to submit work for our third Endelienta Open Exhibition, which will take place from February 1st until March 31st 2019.

Due to the temporary closure of St Endellion Hall, the Open Exhibition will this time take a different format. We hope that many artists will again submit work, and thereby support the Endelienta visual arts programme, in the following way:

The title of the exhibition is 'FOUR', a number that implies a sense of structure and completion, for example in the four seasons, the four natural elements, the four wind directions, the four gospels. In this exhibition it also refers to the only permissible size for submissions: A4

Only submissions on A4 size, portrait orientation, are acceptable, leaving a minimum of 5mm edge all around. The A4 size is 297mm x 210 mm. The actual images must therefore not be bigger than 287mmx200 and submitted on A4 size paper or card.

Artists may submit up to 4 original, unframed, two-dimensional (flat) artworks. Paintings, drawings, original prints, photographs etc are all eligible entries. The entry fee is £4 per artwork. Please submit your form by Friday 25 January 2019.

A selection panel will select the works to be exhibited from all eligible entries and award the prizes to one Exhibition Winner (£75) and two Runner-Ups (£50 each). The prize winners will be announced during the Private View.

The artworks will be mounted into picture mounts and displayed in book form on one or more displays in the Church. Visitors to the exhibitions will be invited to don a pair of white cotton gloves to view the different artworks on the different pages in the book.

Important: Although the artwork will be displayed in as secure a way as possible, the Church is open to the public as usual, and it will not be possible to arrange ongoing stewarding. The risk of potential theft or damage is deemed to be small, but we cannot guarantee that something untoward may happen. Endelienta will not be able to cover potential loss. Participating artists must therefore consider whether they are happy to carry this risk themselves.

Works may be offered for sale. Potential purchasers will be asked to contact Endelienta's Business Manager to arrange the purchase. The sold work will then at the first opportunity be replaced with a colour reproduction, so that the original work can be secured for the buyer. Endelienta charges a commission fee of 30% on all sales.

Artists are asked to note that this exhibition is a fundraiser for Endelienta. The funds raised from entry fees will help Endelienta to programme future arts & spirituality events. The selection and judging will be entirely determined by the selection panel. Whether selected and shown or not, all artwork entries will support Endelienta's work in North Cornwall.
