

Endelienta

Arts & Spirituality in North Cornwall

Endelienta

Jim Carey, Riots and Lobsters
(photo Steve Tanner)

Summer Programme
May to August 2019

Welcome to Endelienta's 2019 Summer Season. We have choice delights in store, ranging from the zany songs of Kneehigh's Jim Carey to the sublime heights of violinist Tom Bowes playing unaccompanied Bach or the unforgettable experience of hearing the Dante Quartet playing Shostakovich's extraordinary 15th string quartet. These are established performers providing music of real quality – one of Endelienta's primary concerns. But we are also dedicated to promoting the talent of the next professional generation. In this season we have a new professional choir, Albarosa, the auditions for the Treglown Award, held in public for the first time, and the Bristol University Madrigals Ensemble. This is just the music!

Ian Sandbrook, chairman.

Monday 13 May, 7.30pm

Poetry with John Greening & Penelope Shuttle

Join us for an intimate evening in the company of two of the country's leading poets. They will perform together a varied and dramatic sequence of selected poems from their verse collaboration Heath, as well as each reading from their own most recent collections, Penelope Shuttle's Will You Walk a Little Faster and LZRD (with Alyson Hallett) and John Greening's The Silence and Achill Island Tagebuch.

John Greening has received the Bridport Prize and a Cholmondeley Award. Penelope Shuttle's series of poems Redgrove's Wife was short-listed for both T S Eliot and Forward Prize. She lives in Cornwall.

Poetry workshop with John Greening Monday 13 May, 10.00-16.00 in Camelford. Contact indianking@btconnect.com or 01840 212161 for details.

www.johngreening.co.uk
www.penelopeshuttle.co.uk

This event is presented in collaboration with the Indian King Poets.

Tickets £6 Accompanied under 16s free

Literature at St Endellion

book tickets at www.endelienta.org.uk or telephone 07787 944935

Friday 24 May, 7.30pm
Thomas Bowes
Bach Pilgrimage

Friday 10 May, 7.30pm
Albarosa Choir
Winter Nights

The chamber choir Albarosa presents an evening of unaccompanied choral gems from Scandinavia. Works by Grieg, Sandström and Nystedt will be paired with J. S. Bach's timeless motets Singet dem Herrn and Komm, Jesu, komm. The choir comprises young professional singers from London, Latvia, the Netherlands and France. Albarosa, Latin for white rose, was founded by the choir's conductor Timothy Ferguson at the University of York.

This concert is supported by Concert Patrons

This magical concert of unaccompanied violin music, especially designed for church spaces, reflects the emotional and spiritual strength of Bach's music. Spoken introductions give context and background to why and how the music was written. Thomas Bowes is one of the UK's most versatile and accomplished violinists, as a soloist, chamber musician, concertmaster and artistic director. In 2013 Tom undertook an extensive 'Bach Pilgrimage', giving fifty concerts of the unaccompanied Sonatas and Partitas of JS Bach in churches across mainland Britain. His Bach Pilgrimage is now a growing feature of every season and events take him all over the world.

www.thomasbowes.com

Tickets £10, Accompanied under 16s free

Tickets £10, Accompanied under 16s free

Music at St Endellion

book tickets at www.endellionta.org.uk or telephone 07787 944935

Sunday 26 May, 7pm

Treglown Award Reach for the Stars

A special concert featuring the young singers who have applied for the 2019 Chris Treglown Award as they perform their audition on this evening. Winners will be announced at the end of the night.

The Chris Treglown Award, set up in memory of most talented musician Chris who tragically died in a car accident in 2012, is designed to support young people aged 16-26 to showcase their talents and to develop new and appropriate skills in the worlds of classical and musical theatre singing. In particular it assists young people to pursue their musical education, purchase necessary educational materials, and participate in activities which will help achieve their optimum musical performance levels.

www.christreglown.co.uk

Tickets £8. To book tickets phone 07815 987172 or email juliatreglown@hotmail.com

Wednesday 12 June, 7.30pm

Jim Carey & the Saboteurs Riots & Lobsters

Photo: Steve Tanner

Songs written by Nick Darke & Jim Carey, originally performed by Kneehigh.

An exhilarating evening exploring the whirling words and worlds of the acclaimed Cornish playwright Nick Darke, with esteemed composer and musician Jim Carey and his band of Saboteurs.

A unique performance of music first created for plays including Ting Tang Mine, The Bogus, The King of Prussia, and The Riot, toured nationally by Kneehigh in the 1990s, here re-imagined and arranged in a fresh new context by the original composer Jim Carey.

<https://vimeo.com/279438221>

Tickets £10 Accompanied under 16s free

Music at St Endellion

book tickets at www.endellion.org.uk or telephone 07787 944935

Friday 21 June, 7.30pm
Bristol University
Madrigal
Ensemble

Traditionally, Bristol University Madrigal Ensemble end their annual Cornwall tour at St Endellion, and we are delighted that this year is no exception. The concert, featuring choral masterpieces and traditional favourites from their upcoming CD, is always popular and eagerly awaited.

Entry by £5 donation on the door

Wednesday 10 July, 7.30pm
Dante Quartet and Friends
Bach, Brahms and Beyond

The internationally acclaimed Dante Quartet performs at St Endellion as part of the annual Dante Summer Festival. The imaginative programme also includes guest violist Tim Boulton and cellist/composer Joy Lisney, a rising star who has composed a piece especially for this occasion, featuring the talented young players of Trigg Strings.

Glazunov, Prelude and Fugue for string quartet
Bach, Brandenburg Concerto no 3 in G
Vivaldi, Concerto for 2 cellos in G minor
Joy Lisney, Sea Sketches (world premiere)
Brahms, String Sextet in B Flat

£16 on the door, £14 advance booking (before 30 June), children 16 and under £8/£7

Tickets: www.dantefestival.org or 07583 050581

Wednesday 10 July, 9.45pm
Late Shostakovich by Candlelight

The Dantes perform Shostakovich's extraordinary 15th quartet, his penultimate work: an unforgettable experience.

£8 (children £4)

Special price for both concerts: £20 (children £10) (before 30 June)

Tickets: www.dantefestival.org or 07583 050581

Music at St Endellion

book tickets at www.endellionta.org.uk or telephone 07787 944935

Community Music at St Endellion

Sunday May 19th, 3pm Guitar Concert

Talented young Cornish guitarist, Henry Phippen, will perform a short concert including Bach, Walton, and Yoshimatsu, as well as one of his own compositions. Admission at the door.

Sunday June 30th, Afternoon concert

Triggshire Strings and Atlantic Strings conducted by Barbara Degener

Saturday 18 May , 10am-3pm

Animals as Ciphers and Symbols of Spirituality, led by Julia Grigg and Dr Jenny Gashke

An exploration of animal themes through literature and art history, illustrated with images from the Bristol Museum and Art Gallery collection. Julia Grigg is an historical fiction author and Dr Jenny Gashke is Bristol Museum's Curator of Fine Art.

A guided observation of the portrayal of animals as symbols and ciphers of spirituality in works of art will be followed by a presentation on dogs' significance in myth and literature, serving as an introduction to Julia Grigg's recently-published novel 'The Eyes that Look - the secret story of Bassano's Hunting Dogs.'

www.juliagrigg.com

Tickets £10. Bring a picnic lunch.

Saturday 22 June, 10am-3pm

Opening into Silence, led by Victoria Field and Eduard Heyning

This day will use poetry and music as an aid to reflection, contemplation and prayer. In the morning, Vicky and Eduard will offer reflections, poems and music, interspersed with silence and in the afternoon, there will be a more interactive session for those who wish to join in. You are very welcome just to observe.

Victoria Field is a writer and a qualified poetry therapist. Her latest book is a memoir of pilgrimage and marriage (Baggage: A Book of Leavings). She was a writer-in-residence at Truro Cathedral and has a long association with Cornwall. Eduard Heyning plays clarinets and saxophones. He holds degrees in classical music and in theology and religious studies on the spiritual dimension of live performances.

Tickets £10. Bring a picnic lunch.

Reflective Days at St Endellion

book tickets at www.endellionta.org.uk or telephone 07787 944935

30 July - 9 Aug St Endellion Summer Music Festival

Festival principal conductor Ryan Wigglesworth returns to conduct Britten's Death in Venice, starring Mark Padmore, Roderick Williams and Robin Blaze. The opening concert sees Ryan directing Beethoven's Piano Concerto No 1 from the piano. Adam Hickox will conduct Part 1 of Mendelssohn's dramatic oratorio St Paul. Our Truro Cathedral concert is Elgar's The Apostles with Sophie Bevan, Kitty Whately, Robert Murray, Ben Bevan, Neal Davies and Tim Dickinson – also performed in St Endellion. Other works include Sibelius Symphony No 2 and Suk's Serenade for Strings. Chamber concerts include Songs of the Sea performed by Mark Padmore, Roderick Williams and Iain Burnside, with readings by Victoria Newlyn, the string trio version of Bach's Goldberg Variations and a concert showcasing the extraordinary array of instruments gathered for Death in Venice – all of these are not to be missed. See further details on www.endellionfestivals.org.uk.

Endelienta Poetry Group

2nd Saturday of the Month, 10am-12 noon, Stone Barn

This is a relaxed and informal group for anyone who enjoys reading and writing poetry, regardless of experience. For information email Phillippa.Giles@bandittelelevision.com

North Cornwall Book Festival Club

This friendly group meets once a month on a Wednesday evening to read and discuss the work of authors appearing at the book festival. Places are limited, so in the first instance please contact Ronnie Harrison at operations@ncornbookfest.org

The ENDELIENTA MAKE CLUB: For children and parents!

One Saturday morning each month, 10am-12.30, Stone Barn

The Make Club is a fun space to explore, create and get messy. The workshops are led by inspirational artists and makers. There will be materials available for parents as well. Book your places through the website. £5 per family.

18 May: Paper Beads

Learn how to make paper beads and turn them into hanging mobiles or jewellery.

15 June: Abstract Art

Join us to make simple robots or drawing machines, to create abstract pieces of art.

20 July: Outdoor sketching with Ness Lannen

Join us at Pentire Point for an outdoor sketching session. Booking essential.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

May

Friday 10	Concert: Albarosa Choir
Monday 13	Poetry: John Greening and Penelope Shuttle
Saturday 18	Reflective Day: Animals as Cyphers and Symbols
Sunday 19	Concert: Guitar Concert
Friday 24	Concert: Thomas Bowes
Sunday 26	Concert: Treglown Foundation

June

Wednesday 12	Concert: Jim Carey & the Saboteurs
Friday 21	Concert: Bristol Madrigals
Saturday 22	Reflective Day: Opening into Silence
Sunday 30	Concert: Triggshire Strings and Atlantic Strings

July - August

Wednesday 10	Concerts: Dante Quartet (evening and late night)
30 July - 9 August	61st St Endellion Summer Music Festival

TAKING PART

	Poetry Group	Book Club	Make Club
May	Saturday 11	Wednesday 15	Saturday 18
June	Saturday 8	Wednesday 5	Saturday 15
July		Wednesday 3	Saturday 20

BOOKING AND INFORMATION

Book on line at www.endelienta.org.uk, email to tickets@endelienta.org.uk, or telephone the Box Office on 07787 944935, or collect in person from the Wadebridge Bookshop (concert tickets only). Join our emailing list using the form on our website or email your details to mailings@endelienta.org.uk Endelienta is a registered charity (no. 1145047). To help us programme more Endelienta events to entertain and inspire people in North Cornwall, please send a donation to Endelienta, c/o The Treasurer, Trelowath, Watergate Lane, St Mabyn, Cornwall PL30 8BJ.

Arts & Spirituality in North Cornwall

